Hello. You may be wondering why some of the slots are empty. The reason is Character Portraits take a long time to develop, and if we had waited for them all to be finished 'Heroes of Feonora' might never make its public debut. Notice that the completed portraits tend toward line art, with minimal shading (yet still vary from artist to artist). If interested in contributing to the project please reach out to us via the Contact form at feonora.com.
